

Thinking about....

A man called Amos

Once there was a man called Amos. God gave him a job to do: he had to pass on an important message to his people...

Amos was a shepherd. But he was about to be given another job too: God was going to show him something that Amos had to tell his people urgently.

Imagine you're just talking or playing when suddenly there's a really, really loud...

How would you feel? What would you do?

That's how God started his message to Amos - with a roar like a lion. People needed to stop and listen, because this was important!

I wonder what God was going to say?

See if the sermon gives any clues, and find out more next week!

Did you know?

Someone who passes on a message from God is called a 'prophet.' It could be to show people how God sees a situation, to remind us of what's important, or it might be about something that's going to happen.

What next?

You could...

- Look out for a lion appearing in the service!
- Use some craft bits to make a lion. See what you can find out about a lion's roar. How loud is it? Why do they roar?
- Cut out some Bible verses. Give them to members of your family. Think about Amos's job of passing on God's message.

Don't be afraid...
Jesus has risen, just as he said!

Matthew 28:5,6

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed...

It's the smallest seed of all,
but it grows into a huge tree.

Matthew 13:31,32

God will wipe every tear from their eyes.

There will be no
more death or mourning or crying
or pain.

Revelation 21:4

Anyone who hears my words and puts them into practice is like a man who built his house on rock.

Matthew 7:24

God's judgements are just and true.

Revelation 19:2
